

Please do not enact broadcast flags. My experience with video for distance education, which is must less quality that HD or EDTV, has been that the quality is not very good, and the delivery takes a long time, even on T1 lines. I see no way that HDTV broadcasts could be sent by DSL or Cable modem in a usable fashion.
Please do not enact broadcast flags.